HUTN, Inc. Appoints Charles E. Winburn to Board

Former Cincinnati City Council Member to Share Extensive Experience in Community Engagement and Economic Stewardship

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio, January 24, 2018 / PR Newswire / – HUTN, Inc. (OTC: HUTN) today announced the appointment of Charles E. Winburn to its board of directors. An impassioned community advocate and life-long activist, Mr. Winburn served multiple terms as an elected, active member of the Cincinnati (Ohio) City Council before terming out at the conclusion of 2017.

Mr. Winburn’s career reflects comprehensive experience in public service and policymaking, including fifteen years as an elected official, appointed service as a member of the Ohio Civil Rights Commission and fifteen years in administrative and management positions with public and non-profit organizations. He served as chairman of Cincinnati’s Budget and Finance Committee from 2013-2017, overseeing a $1.2 billion city budget and a $3 billion pension system for 6,000 employees. He also previously served as chairman of the city’s Jobs Growth Committee, attracting and supporting small business enterprise, entrepreneurs, workforce development, job creation and economic development.

“HUTN, Inc. focuses on enhancing the financial lives and long-term savings security of everyday Americans and their families,” said Christopher Daniels, CEO of HUTN and president of subsidiaries EF Hutton, Inc. and Megga, Inc. “We are thrilled to welcome Charlie to our board of directors. His vast experience in public service and as an elected official in Cincinnati will be a tremendous asset. He is an energetic, innovative thinker, with a history of personal and professional perseverance, whose ethics and advocacy for his fellow citizens exemplifies the values and tenants of HUTN, Inc. and our employees.”

“I look forward to sharing my vision and experience to help HUTN, Inc., EF Hutton, Inc. and the other subsidiaries grow and deliver upon their missions,” states Winburn. “The innovative products and services will have a significant, positive impact on the lives of countless Americans.”

Mr. Winburn earned his Bachelors and Masters degrees from the University of Cincinnati and completed leadership development programs through Harvard Business School.
