HUTN Closes on $4.7 Million Bridge Financing

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio, February 28, 2018, /PRNewswire/ HUTN, Inc. (OTC: HUTN) closed on a $4.65 million financing secured by specific company owned assets, primarily commercial property. HUTN Group will allocate the resources to support refinance pay-off higher rate secured debt, corporate expenses, and working capital to market new digital services by subsidiaries EF Hutton[®], Inc., Vibrant Mobility, Inc. and Megga[™], Inc. The principal is due on March 1, 2020 and carries a fixed rate of 10.75%. The financing is non-dilutive. The company provided no equity rights in connection with the financing - no conversion right, no stock, no warrants. The company plans to refinance the bridge loan with funding from its next financing.

According to HUTN CEO Christopher Daniels, “this financing, together with the $4.6 million financing provided last month by JP Morgan, strengthens our capital structure and allows us to focus on product development and marketing.”
